Margarie Mullings

Vocalist

Traditionally opera trained, Margarie is a professional Jazz and Blues and Gospiel Singer. Her singing style of velvety jazz with a rhythm and blues tempo, upbeat at times and sultry at others, has won her a large following in Hong Kong where she is presently resident.

Margarie has performed numerous times for industry leaders, heads of state, consul generals and international corporations. She also has wide experience performing at private parties for icons in the entertainment industry, including Mick Jagger and Jackie Chan.

As the owner and founder of her own performing arts company specializing in the artistic development of children for the entertainment industry, Margarie has the flexibility to travel internationally for her performances. She is keen to bring her talents to new markets in Asia Pacific, particularly China and Australia.
